

I think XM radio is great and would count on it in time of bad weather and power failures and other crazy things that are happening in our world. What hapened to free enterprize? when it comes to smut programming I can understand, or anti- freedom politics etc, I am glad to have the FCC as a watch dog, but some times you go afer the wrong programing. Leave XM alone.